DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lerman (5,604,789) in view of Elrefaie et al (6,243, 577).

As to claim 1, Lerman teaches modular residential radio frequency converting repeater for DCS-1800 system comprises an outdoor module repeater and an indoor module repeater (column 2, lines 47-56 , column 4 lines 34-61 and figure 3), two modular repeaters (42 and 44) communicating simultaneously with each other with converted low radio frequency (column 6, lines 53-column 7, lines 59 and column 8, lines 1-7 and figure 8).

Lerman does not expressly teach PCS sytem. However, Elrefaie et al teach PCS (column 4, line 10-column 5, line 13 and figure 3). Since, Lerman , in the similar field of endeavor, teach residential indoor and outdoor repeaters for covering a residential house or office DCS service. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to combine Lerman and Elrefaie , in providing coverage of cellular communication service, as taught by Elrefaie, in order to improve the signal strength by boosting the signal using the indoor repeater and provide better coverage inside the house.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Charas et al (5,404,570) disclose a repeater system in a communication system including a base station and a mobile unit provides a communication link between the base station and the mobile unit when the mobile unit is in an environment that is substantially closed off to high radio frequency communication between base station and mobile unit. (abstract and figure 2B).

Akerberg et al (5,533,027) discloses a communication system and indoor coverage (figure 9).
